Notice: Notice/Request to Change Status from Decedent to Non-Decedent

Dear Sir or Madam,
Here are the documents that you require as proof that I am a Non-Decedent.

Statutory Claim in accord with IRS Manual 21.7.13.3.2.2(2) / 1707 Cestui Que Vie Act. An infant is the decedent of an estate or grantor, owner or trustor of a trust, guardianship, receivership, or custodianship that has yet to receive a Social Security Number.

Please update my file to indicate NON-DECEDENT, that I am living and age of majority. Please record it in your database and acknowledge my request by returning to me a letter of acknowledgement from your office that this task has been completed. The address above may be used to reach me.

I am no longer liable and cannot be held liable for:
1) Maritime liens being enforced against me, and
2) Securities being taken out of the estate.
Further:

All Maritime liens being enforced against me, the living soul, I hereby claim invalid, null & void, ab initio, nunc pro tunc. Note that I am the infant without a Social Security Number, which makes me the Agent and Beneficiary of this trust. Being that the IRS works in Admiralty, the IRS according to its own code, can no longer enforce Maritime liens against me, the living man/woman/soul, as I have now claimed. I am not lost at sea, nor am I a decedent/vessel in commerce (1707 Cestui Que Vie Act).

Pursuant to IRS Majority Status

Majority status is determined by the state of residence. You will need to verify with the state where the child resides for that determination.

California Family Code 6500-6502: Age of Majority is Eighteen.

6501. An adult is an individual who is 18 years of age or older.

Documents Enclosed: Driver License, Social Security Card, Certificate of Live Birth, & Non-Decedent Notice.

Thank You for your time and attention to this matter.
Sincerely,
